RESOLUTION No. 1/42-ICHAD
ON THE HUMANITARIAN ACTIVITIES OF THE OIC

The Forty-second Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers (Session of joint vision to strengthen tolerance and reject terrorism) held in Kuwait City, State of Kuwait from 9-10 Sha'baan 1436H (27-28 May 2015),

Proceeding from the provisions of the OIC Charter;

Referring to the OIC Ten-Year Programme of Action adopted by the 3rd Extraordinary Islamic Summit held in Makkah-Al-Mukkaramah in December 2005 which calls for the strengthening of the role of the Organization in confronting disasters;

Referring to the provisions of the final communiqué of the 11th session of the Islamic Summit held in the Republic of Senegal in March 2008, which calls for sustained efforts to organize humanitarian and charitable work under the umbrella of the OIC and mandates the Secretary General to promote the OIC's humanitarian role and achieve the objectives defined in the Ten-Year Programme of Action;

Recalling its previous resolutions regarding humanitarian affairs;

Having examined the report of the Secretary General on Humanitarian Affairs (OIC/42-CFM/2015/ICHAD/SG-REP)

1. Commends the work undertaken by the General Secretariat in the humanitarian domain, the enhanced cooperation with the international humanitarian community, and international organizations, and in particular, OCHA, UNHCR, ICRC, World Bank, the African Union, the Arab League, USAID, AusAid, EU, and coordination efforts accomplished by the Humanitarian Affairs Department (ICHAD) to alleviate the sufferings of people in need within various OIC Member States affected by disasters and calamities.
2. Commends the significant effort rendered by the OIC Humanitarian Coordination Office in Somalia in the first phase of the Somalia recovery programme, under the government's plan for stabilizing and rebuilding of Somalia, and expresses appreciation to the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for the generous assistance offered under the Saudi National Campaign, as well as various donors and stakeholders who contributed towards these projects. Further calls upon Member States and NGOs to extend the necessary assistance towards the recovery phase in Somalia.
3. Expresses appreciation to the Government of the Arab Republic of Egypt for its cooperation and facilitation of the humanitarian mission to Gaza from 1-5 September, 2014, and for organizing the Cairo International Conference on Palestine “Reconstruction of Gaza” under the auspices of the Egyptian President and joint organization between Egypt and Norway. Welcomes the pledges made at the conference, particularly by OIC Member States and calls on those who made pledges to honour their commitments. Further appeals to Member States and NGOs to extend the necessary assistance to the Palestinian people, particularly in Gaza.

4. Expresses deep concern on the deteriorating situation in Syria, the increasing number of IDPs and refugees in neighbouring countries; and the inhumane and dreadful situation of Syrians denied access to humanitarian assistance. Reiterates its appreciation to Member States and NGOs that contributed generously towards the alleviation of the plight of Syrian refugees and displaced persons. Further calls upon Member States and NGOs for their continued assistance to internally displaced persons (IDPs) and to countries hosting Syrian refugees. Commends the hosting by the State of Kuwait of the 3rd donors conference for Syria after hosting both High-level International Humanitarian Pledging Conferences for the Syria Crisis in 2013 and 2014.
5. Welcomes the joint OIC-OCHA mission to Iraq from 20-24 October 2014 to sensitize the international community and Member States to the current humanitarian situation in Iraq. Expresses its appreciation to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for the generous donation of US $500 million to Iraq. Also expresses its appreciation to the State of United Arab Emirates for the humanitarian assistance it provides for Iraq including the building of the 10,000-capacity first camp in Kurdistan origin for housing the displaced Iraqis Calls upon Member States and NGOs to extend the necessary assistance to Iraq to address humanitarian and protection needs of millions of displaced persons and further calls on Member States and NGOs to help in rebuilding destroyed places of worship in Iraq.
6. Expresses deep concern on the deteriorating humanitarian situation in Yemen, particularly after the painful events being witnessed in the Yemeni arena presently, appeals to member states and regional and international organization and bodies and OIC institutions to provide urgent medical assistance to boost the capacity of health facilities to face the serious shortage in the stock of hospitals and health centres and to provide urgently all forms of relief assistance to the Yemeni people to mitigate the plight of the victims of the ongoing war in several Yemeni cities and regions. Expresses appreciation to the Government of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia for food relief assistance of US$ 58 million.
7. Welcomes the proposal of the General Secretariat to organize a meeting of the shareholders of the Darfur Development Bank at the OIC Headquarters in Jeddah in the near future. Calls on Member States and financial institutions interested in contributing to the capital of the Bank to inform the General Secretariat as it is planning to invite all the countries and institutions expressing interest in becoming shareholders in the Bank
8. Expresses deep concern over the humanitarian situation in the province of Southern Kordofan resulting from the protracted war in the province, and the influx of refugees from Southern Sudan. Commends the General Secretariat for its efforts to assist the affected people.

RESOLUTION NO: 2/42-ICHAD
ON THE HUMANITARINA SITUATION IN SYRIA

The Forty-Second Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers (Session of joint vision to strengthen tolerance and reject terrorism) held in Kuwait City, State of Kuwait, on 27-28 May 2015 (9-10 Shaban 1436H),

Recalling the objectives and principles enshrined in the Charter of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), particularly those calling for promoting solidarity among Muslims and defending rights of the people;

Referring to the resolutions on the situation in Syria by the 41st CFM held in Jeddah on 18-19 June 2014;

Emphasizing the grave humanitarian situation in Syria that reached new and horrific dimensions which entail urgent attention and resolute action by the international community, the UN the OIC in particular;

Underlining that a viable solution to the humanitarian crisis could only be found within the borders of Syria;

Noting that nearly half of the Syrian population (12.2 million) is in desperate need of assistance including 8.15 million IDPs deprived form sustained humanitarian assistance;

Further highlighting the serious ramifications of the flow of refugees for the neighboring countries and taking into consideration the ever increasing burden shouldered by them who are currently hosting more than 3.9 million refugees;

Reiterating the urgency to allow immediate and unimpeded humanitarian access to all Syrian cities, through all border crossing points, in accordance with UN Security Council Resolution 2191, the need for an increased humanitarian assistance inside Syria and to meet the needs of the internally displaced persons concentrated in certain areas who seek refuge and protection and providing full support for the neighboring countries to alleviate the humanitarian situation of the displaced Syrians and to facilitate their return;

1. Commends the exemplary generosity and hospitality of the neighboring countries, Jordan, Turkey, Iraq, Lebanon and Egypt for hosting Syrians and calls on the international community and the UN to support these countries in alleviating the burdens they face.

2. Commends the Government of the State of Kuwait for hosting the Humanitarian Pledging Conference for Syria in March 2015, upon the invitation of the Secretary-General of the UN.

3. Recognizes the grave humanitarian situation facing Jordan because of the presence of 1.4 million Syrian refugees, 600,000 of whom escaped to this country beginning from March 2011, in addition to the continued daily inflow to Jordan, the strong impact of which also affects the economic, social, services, infrastructural, environmental, demographic composition and security sectors of Jordan, and continues to constitute serious threat to the security and stability of Jordan; stressing that international assistance remains insufficient compared with needs, calls upon the international community/the United Nations and OIC Member States to provide extensive support to enable Jordan to continue to shelter this large number of refugees.

4. Calls on OIC Member States to continue to assist the neighboring countries in accordance with the principle of burden sharing and Islamic solidarity.

5. Calls upon the UN Security to take further steps in the face of the deteriorating humanitarian situation in Syria and to ensure the immediate and full implementation of the provisions of UN Security Council Resolution 2191, in particular those pertaining to rapid, safe and unhindered humanitarian access across conflict lines and across borders through the most direct routes.

Resolution 3/42-ICHAD
On
Displaced Syrians in Lebanon

The Forty-Second Session of the Council of Foreign Ministers (Session of joint vision to strengthen tolerance and reject terrorism) held in Kuwait City, State of Kuwait, on 27-28 May 2015 (9-10 Shaban 1436H),

Recalling resolution 6/39-P on the Establishment of the Department of Humanitarian Affairs and resolution 1/36-36 on the Functions and Competencies of the Department of Humanitarian Affairs,

Having considered the report of the Secretary General OIC/CFM/42/2015/ICHAD/SG-REP on the humanitarian activities of the OIC, particularly the paragraphs on the humanitarian situation in OIC Member States an alleviating the plight of Syrian civilians in Syrian and neighbouring countries, especially Lebanon,

1. Expresses strong concern over the growing number of displaced Syrians in Lebanon, which has constituted a burden on the social, economic and demographic conditions of the country;
2. Expresses its appreciation for the efforts of the Lebanese state despite the scarcity of resources to receive and care for the displaced Syrians, also commends the policy of the Lebanese Government to keep borders open for and not to turn back civilians fleeing the raging fighting;
3. Calls upon Member States, international organizations and civil society bodies to provide the necessary support to the Lebanese State to enable it confront the burden resulting from this displacement;
4. Requests the Secretary General to follow up the issues in this resolution and present a report thereon to the 43rd session of the Council of Foreign Ministers.
